5. G.O.Ms.No.14, Higher Education(UE.II) Department, dated.20.02.2010.

ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, the Secretary General, A.P.Federation of University Teachers Association has stated that the Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development, New Delhi, vide Letter No.1-32/2006-U.II/U.I(I), dated.31.12.2008, has communicated the new pay scales and other benefits extended to the teachers drawing U.G.C. Pay scales to all the State Governments w.e.f. 01.01.2006. The package includes enhancement of age of superannuation to 65 years. In order to meet the situation arising out of shortage of teachers in Universities, the Ministry of Human Resource Development has enhanced the age of superannuation to 65 years and Central Universities in Revised Pay Scales, 2006 have already implemented the same. As a result of this there is a large disparity between teachers working in Andhra Pradesh Universities and Central Universities, in regard to superannuation. Hence, he has requested the Government to enhance the age of superannuation from 60 to 65 years to the Teachers in the Universities.

2. In the reference 2nd to 4th read above, the representatives of the G.C.G.T.A., A.C.T.A. and G.C.T.A. have also requested the Government to enhance the age of superannuation from 58 to 65 to the teachers working in Government Colleges/ Aided Colleges on par with the University teachers, and maintain the parity between the Teachers working in Universities and Colleges.

3. In the reference 5th read above, Government while implementing the U.G.C. Revised Pay Scales, 2006 to University/ College Teachers w.e.f. 01.01.2006 in the State, have mentioned that the Government will examine the enhancement of age of superannuation of the teachers separately.

4. Accordingly, Government, hereby constitute a Committee comprising with the following as members, to examine the issue in detail for enhancement of the age of superannuation to 65 years to the Teachers in Universities/ Government/Aided Degree Colleges, based on the recommendations of the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, New Delhi/ University Grants Commission and keeping in view the financial implication etc:-
